In the Coming Week

BIKE THE SWEETWATER BRIDGE

Join Supervisor Greg Cox and representatives from National City, SANDAG and CalTrans for the long awaited opening of the bike bridge over the Sweetwater River. Nestled above the Sweetwater Marsh National Wildlife Refuge and under the I-5 and SR-54 interchange, the bridge provides a scenic link between National City and Chula Vista, and is the latest addition to the 26 mile Bayshore Bikeway around San Diego Bay.

Saturday, April 17 at 9:00 am on the north end of the bike bridge (Directions: From I-5 exit Mile of Cars/Bay Marina, head west, left on Marina Way, look for directional signs. Thomas Brothers 1309, H4)

CELEBRATING HAIR-ITAGE

Supervisor Greg Cox will join in the opening celebration of the Hair-itage Museum, the only museum of its kind that commemorates African-American history related to beauty. Come meet the author of 400 Years Without A Comb.

Saturday, April 17 at 11:30 am at 101 50th Street, one block west of the Euclid Avenue and Imperial Avenue intersection, San Diego

SUPPORT FOR THE CSAC ALTERNATIVE STATE BUDGET PROPOSAL

The Board of Supervisors will consider a measure by Supervisor Greg Cox and Supervisor Bill Horn to support the budget proposal drafted by the California State Association of Counties (CSAC) that provides an alternative to the Governor's disproportionate and permanent $1.3 billion property tax shift away from local government. Supervisor Greg Cox currently serves as the First Vice President of CSAC.

Tuesday, April 20 at 9:00 am in the Board of Supervisors Chambers at the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, Room 310, San Diego
